Campbell River/Comox Valley, Port Alberni, Parksville, Duncan, Salt Spring Island and Victoria

Vancouver Island, BC

Renowned for its breathtaking natural beauty and enviable quality of life Vancouver Island boasts the mildest climate in Canada. Few areas in the world can match Vancouver Island's scope of outdoor activities. Enjoy winter skiing and year-round sailing, golfing and world-class sports fishing, or explore lush countryside, hiking trails or local wineries.

Located in proximity to the city of Vancouver, Vancouver Island has a population of 800,000 and offers diverse family friendly communities with affordable housing and strong public and private schools. With its rich heritage and vibrant cultural scene this is the perfect place to start your newest adventure.

Island Health is seeking Psychiatrists for rural and urban communities on Vancouver Island, British Columbia. Opportunities span the continuum of care, including Child and Adolescent, Adult, Development Disability Mental Health, Addictions and Geriatric services. Participation in the Psychiatry on-call group is a requirement of Island Health Psychiatry services. Psychiatrists must be eligible for licensure with College of Physicians and Surgeons of BC (CPSBC). Affiliation with the University of British Columbia's Island Medical Program provides an opportunity for teaching medical students and residents.
